

Name:	Folsom Historic
Description:	Joseph Libbey Folsom was a West Point graduate, a US Army officer, and real estate investor in the early days of California's statehood. He is the founder of what is now Folsom, California. Dogs cannot go into Chinese Cemetery and State Park. Portions of the route may be slick and/or muddy after rains. CA Counties: Sacramento. (5k = 3.1 miles, 10k = 6.2 miles) Take a trip back into the time of the Gold Rush through old town Folsom, passing historic sites such as the terminus of the Sacramento Valley Railroad, Pony Express Station, the historic Folsom Powerhouse (the first long distance transmission of electricity) now a National Historic Monument and State Park, the Chinese Cemetery, and old Victorian homes. Take the dirt paths walked by Native Americans and settlers along serene Lake Natoma and the American River with views of Folsom Prison and Maidu Indian ruins. Save time to browse through the Visitor Center, Railroad Museum, History Museum and the Old Powerhouse.
